Advisor's Report:

- Graduation – June 11, 2021
 - Stickers – ASUCC purchased car bumper stickers for graduates which will go into the swag bags that the college is handing/sending out.
 - Volunteers – needed, preferably six volunteers to help with interactive games and hold diploma covers.
- Student Assistance Plan to Advisor – free to students, paid for by CRRSAA funds. Counseling and coaching service vial phone/online. It is a national network which allows students living out of state to access services. There are also legal forms and many other services. It is hoped that this will launch soon, and that funding will keep it available through the end of the 2021-2022 school year.
- Title IX Work Group on “Consent” – Mary is looking for students to help define “consent”.
- Email from Dr. Thatcher – people will begin returning to campus June 1st for a slow transition.
- Resources Page – New – the Student Basic Needs committee has been wanting to develop a student resource page that is more accessible with a clean, easy to use interface. The resource page is complete, it looks good and will launch in June when the updated UCC website is released.
- ASUCC Services – the service application is now an embedded Google form and is accessible from the Hawk Hangout in Canvas.

Good of the Order:

- Keep an eye on the website.
- Star Trek Musical opens on May 20th run for two weekends; students get in for free; outdoor musical at UV Arts outdoor stage. Dance and sing with original music; adapted script.
- Two candidates who still need to collect signatures.
 - If you are able, grab signature link and send to classmates.
