

How will my application be scored?

After you have submitted your UCC Foundation scholarship application, your application is scored by multiple people. These scores are averaged and normalized to 100.

Reviewers are looking for information about qualities related to the applicant's potential for success in the major/career goal they are enrolled in. They want to see a thorough and thoughtful application that is complete and helps to demonstrate who the applicant is. Below is some information on how an application is reviewed / scored.

Score Key
0	Unable to judge / No information: Missing or no information present, sections are blank
1	Poor: Very little information, no detail, gaps in application, obvious oversights or mistakes
2	Fair: Some information is present but there are still gaps and common mistakes
3	Average: Two or three items are present, not a lot of detail but some effort is shown
4	Above Average: Very few oversights or mistakes, several items are listed, well organized
5	Superior: Very strong application, very detailed, multiple examples, obvious care was taken in completing the application
