

HUMAN SERVICES

ONE-YEAR CERTIFICATE – ADDICTION STUDIES – 46 CREDITS

CAREER DESCRIPTION

The Addiction Studies Certificate allows the students opportunity for employment in paraprofessional positions in Human Services. The Addiction Studies Certificate is designed to prepare the student to take the Oregon Certified Alcohol and Drug Counselor exam (CADCI) exam upon completion of coursework and required 1,000 hours of supervised experience. In addition, the Addiction Studies Certificate offers the student a broader base of understanding of the field of Addiction Studies including social aspects of addiction, personal effectiveness in human services, case management and family dynamics. The classes required for this certificate are part of the first-year of study in a two-year AAS degree in Human Services.

PROGRAM OUTCOMES

Students who successfully complete the Addiction Studies Certificate will:

1. Communicate effectively with others
2. Develop interpersonal skills needed to work with people from diverse backgrounds
3. Assess and address needs of individuals, families and groups
4. Demonstrate professional interviewing skills.
5. Develop a plan of action and link people with community resources
6. Foster commitment to the field of human services based on the belief that all humans are capable of growth and that they have a fundamental right to dignity, respect, and self-determination
7. Expand general knowledge and skills in ways that enrich personal and professional lives
8. Demonstrate writing skills appropriate to clinical documentation
9. Identify drug use, misuse and addiction properties
10. Apply the prevention strategies, risk assessment protocols, harm reduction methods and treatment options of infectious diseases in population served by human service professionals
11. Formulate questions that can be addressed with data and collect, organize and display relevant data to answer them
