

UMPQUA COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Criminal Justice

UCC's Criminal Justice program prepares students for employment or further study in the law enforcement, corrections, and parole and probation fields.

In addition to the practical, hands-on skills needed for successful careers in the criminal justice field, UCC students learn how to balance their off-duty lives with the challenges of criminal justice professions. They develop strong communication skills, a broad understanding of case law, legal statutes, and professional standards, and learn how to succeed in diverse environments.

Degree/Certificate Options

Juvenile Corrections Certificate – 48 credits

Associate of Applied Science – 90 credits

Associate of Science – 90 credits

Associate of Arts Oregon Transfer – 90 credits

Criminal Justice

Get Started

UCC's Criminal Justice programs are open throughout the year. Students can start any time.

Program Length

Full-time students can typically earn a Criminal Justice associate degree in two years or a Juvenile Corrections certificate in one year.

Transfer Options

All three associate degree options transfer to four-year colleges. The Associate of Science in Criminal Justice is a partnership program that transfers seamlessly to Southern Oregon University in Ashland.

Special Features

UCC offers students several options within the Criminal Justice field. Students can choose the degree or certificate that best fits their career and education goals. Students have access to the training and support they need to be successful.

Employment Possibilities

Graduates may be qualified for employment as local, state, and federal police officers, corrections officers, and parole and probation officers.
