Statements from Audience:

Kasey Hovik, Umpqua Watersheds: Looking for participants and ASUCC support for a variety of activities. On April 22nd is Earth Day, There is also a march going on April 2nd at 6 PM, called the "There is no Planet B" March, and looking to see ASUCC involvement. Also looking at increasing awareness for some of the hikes done through the Umpqua Watersheds. Lastly there is a convention that is happening March 5-8 up at University of Oregon Law School – the Annual Environmental Law Conference. Registration is free and can be done at <http://pielc.org/>.

Old Business:

Tamara Loosly: Dental Clinic Update: Updated everyone about the dental clinic – they said they got about half the funding, and Tamara is looking for dentists and hygienists in the area to volunteer time for the clinic. Hoping to hold the first one in 2-3 months, even with less funding than hoped.

New Business:

None.

Officer and Senator Reports:

Jesika Barnes, President:

New Leadership Oregon: It's a women's leadership program that is being held from June 18-23rd up in Portland. Registration is until March 8th. It's reallllly good. You should do it. Go to <https://www.thecenterforwomensleadership.org/programs/new-leadership-oregon> for more information.

Free Spring Break Kids Lunch: Bringing awareness to some of the programs that exist for some of our kids out there in the Roseburg area! During the spring break time, they will provide lunches to kids K-12. See <http://www.roseburg.k12.or.us/depts/nutrition/> for details.

Erin Robertson, Vice President:

Election Positions: The new applications have been created, and timeline has been made for positions for next year. Moreover, an election council is on the verge of being created. Who will be the next Emperor Palpatine? Only time will tell.
