

FAFSA Checklist

A new FAFSA is available starting October 1. When applying for the 21/22 FAFSA use the two years back tax information, which would be 2019.

Students (and parents if the student is considered dependent) will need the following information:

You will need access to the following information to file a FAFSA:

Student Information:

__ Your FSA ID (get one at fsaid.ed.gov)

__ Your Social Security number

__ Your driver's license number (if you have one)

__ Your alien registration or permanent resident card (if you are not a U.S. Citizen)

__ Your two years prior W-2 forms, 1099, Schedule C, and other records of money earned

__ Your (and you're spouse's, if you are married) two year prior Federal Income Tax Return (Federal 1040 or a Foreign Tax Return).

The preferred method is uploading your tax information using the Data Retrieval Tool embedded in the FAFSA.

__ Your current bank account balances as of the date you're filing the FAFSA

__ Your prior year untaxed income records

__ Your current business and investment mortgage information, business and farm records, stock, bond and other investment records.

If you can answer "YES" to any of the following you do NOT have to include Parent Information:

- ✓ I turned 24 before January 1 of this year
- ✓ I am married
- ✓ I am serving in active duty or am a veteran of the U.S. Armed Forces
- ✓ I have children
- ✓ I am an emancipated minor or I have a legal guardian who is not my parent
- ✓ I have been declared a homeless or unaccompanied youth
- ✓ After I turned 13 years old I was orphaned, in foster care, or a ward of the court

If you cannot answer "YES" to one of the above statements, you are considered a dependent student and will need to include parent/step-parent information on the FAFSA.

Parent Information:

__ Your parent's FSA ID (get one at fsaid.ed.gov)

__ Your parents' prior year Federal Income Tax Return (Federal 1040 or a Foreign Tax Return).

The preferred method is uploading your tax information using the Data Retrieval Tool embedded in the FAFSA.

__ Your parents' two years prior W2s, 1099, Schedule C, and other records of money earned

__ Your parents' prior year untaxed income records

__ Your parents' current bank account balances as of the FAFSA filing date

__ Your parents' current business and investment mortgage info records, stock, bond and other investment records.
