As a student with a high debt and/or a prior default on your record you are considered a "High Risk Borrower" at UCC. In order to be considered for future educational loans at UCC, we must have clarification regarding your academic plans.

You must submit the following documents to the Financial Aid Office along with this form:

- ✓ A term-by-term planner completed and signed by an Advisor in the Student Center (Come to the Financial Aid Office to pick up your referral form in order to schedule an appointment for a term-by-term planner)
- Attach a letter of explanation including the following information:
 - Explanation of the circumstances regarding your High Debt / Default and what has changed to prevent future problems.
 - Estimated entry level income in your field of study
 - How you intend to repay loans upon leaving school based on that projected income, allowing for living expenses

Complete the following:

- Your educational goal and estimated completion date at UCC:

Educational Goal: _____

Estimated Date of Completion at UCC: ____/____/____
- Your current amount of loan debt: $ _____
